Honorable Lorna G. Schofield
United States District Court
Southern District of New York
500 Pearl Street
New York, NY 10007

Re: MPI Tech A/S v. International Business Machines Corporation
Docket No. 15-cv-4891-LGS-DCF

Dear Judge Schofield:

I write on behalf of Plaintiff MPI Tech, Defendant IBM, and former counsel for MPI, Marc Goldstein, Esq., all concerned parties in this action ("Parties"), with regard to Your Honor's Order dated October 12, 2017 (D.E. 294) ("Order"), in which the Court extended certain filing deadlines (the "Deadlines") to November 30, 2017, and December 13, 2017, and subsequently extended those Deadlines to December 7 and 21, 2017 (D.E. 296). . .

We are pleased to report that the parties have agreed on conditions for the withdrawal with prejudice of the IBM motion at D.E. 258, but the date for consummation of those conditions is January 8, 2018. We therefore request the Court's indulgence in permitting the current Deadlines, as mentioned above, to be extended to January 10 and 17, 2018. By then, we expect to provide a letter to the Court requesting that the Court modify its orders at D.E. 291 to reflect that the motion at D.E. 258 is withdrawn with prejudice and with each party bearing its own costs.

Pursuant to Your Honor's Individual Rules, I(B)(2), we provide the following information: (1) the current Deadlines are December 7 and 13, 2017, and the extensions sought are January 10 and 17, 2018; (2) this is the fifth request for extension of these Deadlines; (3) the prior requests for extension have been granted by the Court; and (4) all Parties consent to the relief requested. The extension of the Deadlines requested herein will not affect any other dates or deadlines in this matter.

Application GRANTED. The parties' proposed dates are accepted. The parties shall jointly file a status letter on or before January 18, 2018, regarding the status of the parties' settlement negotiations and stating whether Defendant intends to withdraw its motion.

Dated: December 6, 2017
